Improvise (doesn't have to be in time)

Scripture says we don't know how to pray, but the Spirit of God, alive in us, prays for us with sighs -- groans -- too deep for words. It says the whole universe is groaning, like a mother, pregnant and in labor. The music of South Africa has long embodied this sense of groaning as the people have sung and prayed and marched their way into the hopeful future prepared by God.

As we turn to God in prayer,
I wonder what is groaning in your life right now.
I wonder what newness is being brought to birth in you.

For whom and for what are we burdened to pray for?
(On screen: Your prayers are invited in the comments.)

Continue improvising about 12-15 seconds for prayers
